The deficits of most employed graduates:

- insufficient motivation
- inadequate practical skills
- insufficient language skill (English, French, German other)
- less involvement in volunteer actions

The Economic College „Partenie Cosma” could offer better vocational training to their students by

- developing practical training programs in collaboration with economic agents/ representatives from the labour market (in the tourism, catering and commerce sector).
- Involving the school psychologist in professional/ career orientation programmes for students

Could you imagine cooperating with the Economic College „Partenie Cosma” in order to ensure that the apprentices are better prepared for their job?

▣ Yes 100%

Thank You!
